Teacher In-Charge: Ms. Bijoyata Yonzon

Association In-Charges: Ms. Puja Pal and Dr. Navpreet Kaur

The Economics Department of Janki Devi Memorial College has always intended to provide a holistic setting for its students to prepare them for careers in academia, management, research, government, and many other fields. We work towards creating an environment that helps them to grow in various respects and equips them with the much-needed co-curricular and extra-curricular exposures, a necessity in currently high-demanding times. We aim to nurture leadership qualities, cultivate organizing skills and stimulate teamwork in the students in addition to promoting creative and critical thinking.

Despite the difficult times due to the Covid-19 pandemic that led to virtual classrooms, the Economics Department did not only maintain the steadiness in teaching and learning but also coordinated numerous engaging events for students that aimed towards their overall development.

VII. ECOPHORIA '21:

The annual inter-college fest of the Economics Department -Ecophoria was organised after two years from April 9 to 13, 2021 in online mode. Union under the guidance of teachers organised the following events:

- Inaugural lecture on Aatmanirbhar Bharat: The fest commenced with an Inaugural lecture by Prof N. R. Bhanamurthy, Vice-Chancellor of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar School of Economics University (BASE University), Bengaluru on the topic “Aatmanirbhar Bharat”. The COVID-19 pandemic made 2020 a difficult year for the Indian Economy. It had suffered even before the pandemic. According to PM Modi, Aatmanirbhar Bharat Abhiyaan is designed to aid India out of the Coronavirus crisis by making her self-reliant. The objective of this webinar was to discuss this newly launched scheme in greater length and through an economic lens.
- Meraki: Craft your Vision: Meraki was an Online Inter-College face painting/poster making competition where participants got to show their creative and innovative sides by submitting either a poster or face painting on socio-political topics and were marked based on creativity and originality of the idea. The event was held on Instagram from April 10 to 12, 2021. The event ended on a successful note where we saw the creativity of participants and their enthusiasm towards the art. The first prize was given to Swati from central academy and second prize to Tushita Arora from JDMC.
- Ad Mad 2.0- Let's advertise with a cause: Ad Mad was an Advertisement making competition for students to demonstrate their creativity in marketing by reaching out to the hidden actor in them. They had to promote it till they sell it. This event was held on Instagram from April 11 to 12, 2021. The event turned out to be an interactive one where we got to see a variety of ideas flourishing out of their brains in a creative way. The first prize was given to Bhavouk from DDUC and second prize to Chahat Pahuja from Kalindi college.
- EQUILIBRIA'21- A state of balance: Equilibria'21 was organised by The Quizzards show- the quiz society of our department. Revolving around basic economics, this event was designed to test overall economic knowledge in a very balanced way to cover all the aspects. Equilibria was held on April 12 11:00 AM onwards. The mode used was zoom and through google forms. The first prize was given to Sushant Bhaat and Divyansh and second prize to Aru Jain and Anshita.

The Fest came to a close with the announcement of the winners of all three events and the successful launch of our annual department e-magazine "Ecogene" in its eighth edition. Despite the fact that this was the first time Ecophoria was held online in light of the current situation, it was a fruitful and memorable event.

VIII. Essay writing competition on Ambedkar and his Economic Thoughts:

The Economics Department of JDMC organized an essay writing competition, for its students, on the theme “Ambedkar and his Economic Thoughts” to celebrate the 130th birth anniversary of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar with April 23, 2021 as the last date of submission. The objective was to make the students critically understand the topic, and to shape and share their ideas based on it. The competition primarily focused on how most of the economic planning strategy post-independence was based on Ambedkar’s ideology and his economic ideas which holds great importance even to this day. The word limit for the essay was 500 to 750 words. The winner of the competition was Ms. Khushi Jain from second year.
