Activities 2022-23

ENTENTE 3.0

DATE : 24TH AUGUST 2022

Etihad, The Mun Society of Janki Devi Memorial college hosted the third iteration of "Entente: The Intra College Youth Parliament" of JDMC with collaboration with Ministry of Parliament Affairs, Government of India on the occasion of Aazadi ka Amrit Mahotsav. It was a one day offline AIPPM committee with the Agenda - "Deliberation upon the concept of secularism with emphasis on religious defamation and communal violence in India," wherein the committee room of JDMC served as the venue. The event kicked off with the Opening Ceremony sharp at 10, with the inaugural speech delivered by the Secretariats welcoming everyone to the event. Team Etihad was honored to witness Professor Swati Pal, Principal JDMC, in such dignified attendance. Prof. Swati Pal embarked by congratulating the team to curate such an intoxicating event and was delighted to see young lasses exhibiting their interests in political affairs, and appreciated them for the same. She felt nostalgic, sharing her keen interest in MUNs accompanied by her academic years' experience towards political discourses. At last she took this opportunity to enlighten the committee about political consciousness, dynamics and international diplomacy followed by encouraging the participants to have their best.

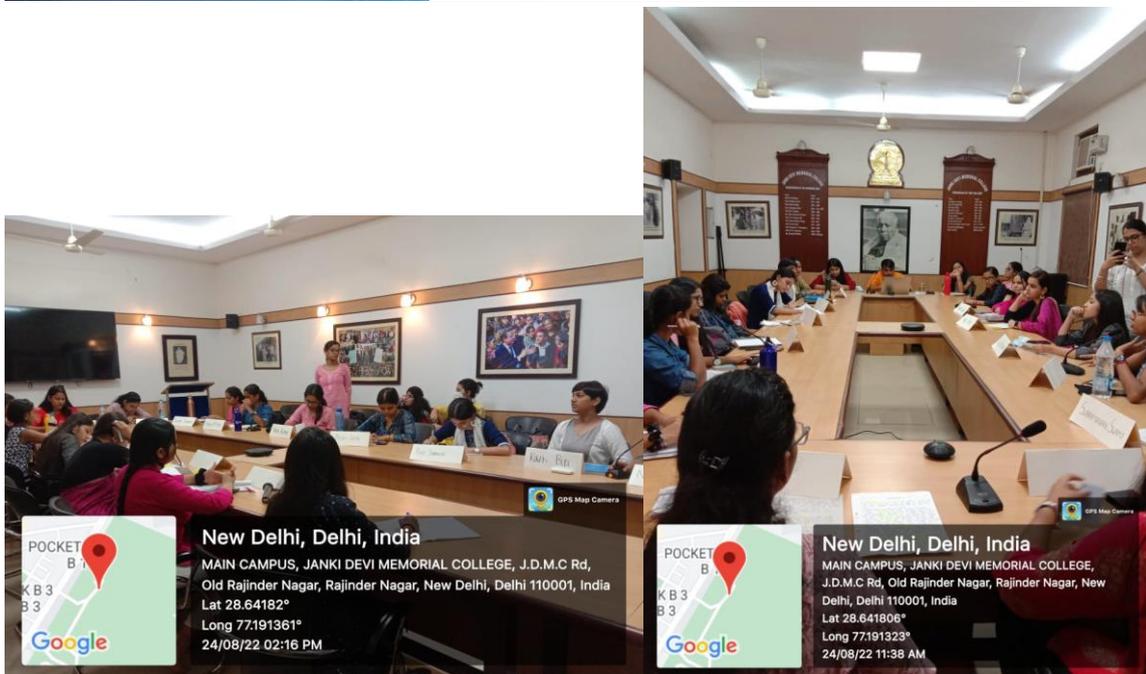

The event proceeded with the introduction to the Executive Board of the AIPPM committee, Mr. Shivam Gupta, who is an alumni from Symbiosis Centre of Management Studies, Noida and is currently working as an Senior Associate at Genpact Firm. With an experience of more than 130 MUN conferences in various capacities, he holds a cohesive nature for the same. The Executive Board began with an extensive speech on MUN and its significance followed by explaining the procedure, rules and regulations and marking criteria for the event from head to toe. All the queries of delegates were duly answered before the beginning of the committee. Succeeding all the formal procedures, the committee floor was announced open precisely at 11 along with the opening statements of the delegates. The committee got entirely engrossed in the idea of secularism, discussing its several aspects starting from the 42nd amendment Act 1976, different ideologies towards secularism to the utmost important issue of national integrity. Besides this, the delegates unfailed to touch other arenas of its impact such as the CAA protest, Covid pandemic, reservation policy, defamation of religion, media as well as communal riots. The enthusiastic and professional performances of the delegates left the executive board astonished and the committee more competitive. After such a brainstorming session, delegates successfully concluded an authentic draft paper at the end of the committee.

The event further geared up with the feedback session by the Executive Board letting the delegates know the Do's and Don'ts for their upcoming committees. Subsequently, the result was declared by the executive board in a fair and square manner and the delegates were congratulated for their brilliant performances. With this the event reached its final destination, the closing ceremony wherein Ms. Jaya Yadav, the Teacher Coordinator, took the initiative to enunciate the efforts the entire team had put in to pull off such a wonderful event.

The respected teachers Ms. Anuradha Goel, Mrs. Richa Dani, Ms. Poonam Bewtra congratulated everyone for making the event a success through their participation. The Secretariat Members, Ms. Rajasi Chakraborty, Ms. Aakanksha Pandey, Ms. Kanak Singhal and Ms. Lavanyaa Raj showed their gratitude towards the Principal, Teachers, the Executive Board and the Participants on behalf of the whole Organizing Committee.

The Ministry of Parliamentary Affairs, Government of India issued Certificate of Appreciation to all the participants of Entente 3.0 and the Principal, Prof. Swati Pal for their dedicated hard work towards the success of the event.
