At minority colleges, a slight change in rules

ADMISSION RUSH Those applying at St Stephen's College need to fill a separate form while the DU's common registration form will be considered by the four Sikh colleges

HT Correspondent

NEWDELH: Students planning to apply to St Stephen's College and Jestis and Mary College—two of the Christian minority institutes under Delhi University—will first have to fill the centralised DU registation form and then use the application number to fill a separate college form. However, those applying to the four Sikh minority colleges — Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Guru Gobind Singh Khalsa College of Commerce, Sri Guru Robal Bahadur Khalsa College, Sri Guru Gobind Singh Khalsa College of Commerce, Sri Guru Nanah Bev Khalsa College and Sri Guru Nanak Dev Khalsa College, and Mata Sundri College for Women - have iteasier. They just need to fill the central registration form and choose the colleges as top priority

LAST DATE TO APPLY

- Thursday, June 7: DU's central-ised online registration form
- Thursday, June 7: Online registration form for Jesus and Mary College

as top pones.
The online regreess stration process or St Stephen's college will continue to Stephen's College will continue till June 10—three days after the Delhi University closes its central-ised registration process. Atthecollege, 50 per cent of the seats are reserved for Christian candidates. The college has, it is prospective montantial to the seats are reserved.

in its prospectus, maintained that stu-dents should not include environmental dents should not include environmental education (SGC), fine arts, graphic design, painting, dance, music, physical education, homescience, engineering drawing and other vocational subjects as part of their best-of-four marks.

The college, which conducts separate written tests and interviews for admissions.

sions, has clearly stated that for BA

Delhi University's two Christian and four Sikh minority colleges reserve 50 per cent seats for Christian and Sikh candidates respectively.

(Hons), BA (programme) and BSc (Hons) mathematics, the weightage breakupis as follows: 85% on Class 12 marks, 5% on written test and 10% on the interview. For admission into all BSc (Hons) courses besides mathematics, Class 12 marks will account for 5% and the personal interview will account for the rest 15%. For admission interview will account for the rest 15%. For admission under coverts works Class 12 admission under sports quota, Class 12 marks account for 28%, sports trial will account for 42% and sports interview will accountfor 42% and sports interview will account for 15%.

At Jesus and Mary College, however, the online registration process will close on June 7— the same day as the university. As per the college website, an applicant can fill only one form and mark three preferences on it. The website also maintains that 50% of the seats are reserved for Christian candidates. At the college, having mathematics in Class 12 is compulsory for anyone planning to apply for BCOm (Hons) and economics (Hons). Those applying for political science (Hons), history (Hons) and sociology (Hons) will get an advantage of 2% in best-form a caresteas if these in what has been considered in the control of the control (trions) will get an advantage of 2% in best-of-four aggregate if they include the respective subject.

The college has maintained that three academic subjects and English can be part of the best-of-four percentage aggre-

At the four Sikh minority colleges, 50% seats are reserved for Sikh candidates. These four colleges are maintained by the Delhi Sikh Gurwar and Mangement Committee (DSGMC) and hence 50% seats of the various courses offered by these institutes are reserved for students belonging to the Sikh community.

As per the admission guidelines uploaded on the university website, "Students seeking admission under Sikh minority category must furnish the 'Minority Certificate' issued by DSGMC at the time of admission." At the four Sikh minority colleges, 50%
