Brief Report :

The Economics Department organised the Intra-college Economics Festival on January 30, 2025. Under the Festival, a Paper Presentation Competition was held from 12:00 PM in the Seminar Room, on JDMC campus. The event began with welcoming the department faculty, including the judges- Dr. Abu Afzal Tauheed and Dr. Rajni Kapoor. The competition allowed the participants to present on a topic of their choosing, from a specified list, given beforehand. This included economic centered themes such as 'Behavioural economics' or 'The Aatmanirbhar scheme'. After the completion of the presentations, the judges deliberated upon the results and announced the three winners.

This felicitation ceremony also included the winners of the Poster Making Competition and the ECONOMASTERS quiz (organised by Quizzards, the Quiz society of the Economics Department), which were both a part of the Intra-College Festival. This was followed by a brief ceremony where the student volunteers and coordinators of the previously held International Conference, were presented with a token of appreciation. The ceremony was carried out by Association-in charge and faculty members- Dr. Sakshi Bansal, Dr. Bijoyata Yonzon, Ms. Deepti Sethi, Dr. Rajni Kapoor and Dr. Abu Afzal Tauheed. Thus the competition was concluded alongside the completion of the Intra-college Festival, which was a resounding success.

Brief Report :

The Poster Making Competition commenced on January 30, 2025, at 12:00 PM in Room No. 49 of the JDMC premises. The event was organized under the Intra-College Economics Festival. The competition was judged by department faculty, Ms. Bijoyata Yonzon and Ms. Deepti Sethi. It began with the coordinators briefing the participants on the competition rules. The participants were given the objective to create innovative posters on two themes. The event was organized to commemorate National Newspaper Day (January 29) and National Cancer Day (February 4).

“Cancer Conversation: Ending the Silence Together” and “Newspapers: Empowering Citizens, Enriching Communities”, were the themes. Following evaluation, the results were announced during the closing ceremony. Nisha Kumari received a special verbal mention. The second position was secured by Sanjana and Monica, who created posters on Newspapers and Cancer Conversation, respectively. The first position was awarded to Mehak Gupta and Tanushree, who also made posters on the same themes. The event concluded with a prize

Brief Report:

On January 30, 2025, the Quizzards Show in collaboration with the Economics department of Janki Devi Memorial College, organised a highly engaging and intellectually stimulating Intra-college quiz competition named “Economasters” within the college's Room no. 67. The event was graced by distinguished personalities, including Prof. Swati Pal, the Principal of Janki Devi Memorial College; Dr. Bijoyta Yonzon, the Teacher-in-Charge of the Economics Department; and esteemed faculty members, Dr. Sakshi Bansal, Ms. Deepti Sethi and Mr. Abhinub Kumar. Vaishnavi Jaiswal and Mehak Arora, Heads of the Quizzards, extended a warm welcome to all attendees. The competition featured 9 diverse teams, each comprising two participants. Vaishnavi Jaiswal and Mehak Arora the Head of the Quizzards society, explained the rules and regulations of the quiz, which consisted of two rounds:

- Crossword Round
- Puzzle Round

During the Crossword Round, participants had to answer 13 questions within a tight 15-minute window. Subsequently, 5 teams qualified for the intense Puzzle Round, where they had to respond swiftly to questions related to the Global Economic Crisis with only 10. The final round, "puzzle" added an element of chance as students joined up the puzzles for questions, encompassing Global Economics Crisis Questions. Each team tackled 2 questions which were mentioned in the puzzle.

The much-anticipated announcement of the winners revealed the triumphant team: Jasmin from B.com hons 3rd year

They received well-deserved recognition in the form of certificates and a cash prize of Rs.1200.

Brief Report:

The Economics Department of Janki Devi Memorial College, in collaboration with the JDMC Alumnae Association, organised an alumni talk on 'The Power of Soft Skills: Why they Matter for Success'. The session was held on November 8, 2024 in Room 67 from 12 PM to 1 PM. The speaker, Ms Sana Muti, began by differentiating between Hard skills and Soft skills while focusing on the latter's role in navigating work life. After discussing the various types of soft skills, Ms Sana engaged with the audience using real-life examples and hypothetical scenarios. While talking about confidence, communication, and other interpersonal skills, she talked about their use in a corporate environment. She used TED videos and statistics to advocate the importance of Soft skills, especially for women.

The session concluded on a positive note as the audience asked the speaker their various doubts and queries. Overall, it was a successfully organised event that helped attendees gain knowledge and insight.

Brief Report:

On March 5, 2024, the Quizzards Show in collaboration with the Economics department of Janki Devi Memorial College, organised a highly engaging and intellectually stimulating Intra-college quiz competition named “Quizlogy” within the college's Room no. 67. The event was graced by distinguished personalities, including Prof. Swati Pal, the Principal of Janki Devi Memorial College; Dr. Bijoyta Yonzon, the Teacher-in-Charge of the Economics Department; and esteemed faculty members, Dr. Sakshi Bansal, Ms. Deepti Sethi and Mr. Abhinub Kumar. Vaishnavi Jaiswal and Mehak Arora, Heads of the Quizzards, extended a warm welcome to all attendees. The competition featured 16 diverse teams, each comprising two participants. Mehak Arora the Head of the Quizzards society, explained the rules and regulations of the quiz, which consisted of two rounds:

- PreliminaryRound
- AudioVisualRound

During the Preliminary Round, participants had to answer 15 questions within a tight 10-minute window. Subsequently, 5 teams qualified for the second round, where they had to guess the answers through video and audio shown on the smartboard, with only 10 seconds allotted per question.

The much-anticipated announcement of the winners revealed the triumphant team: Perna (2nd Year) and Ishika Goel (2nd Year).

They received well-deserved recognition in the form of certificates and a cash prize of Rs.1000.

The event concluded on a high note with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Vaishnavi Jaiswal, underscoring the exceptional blend of fun and enrichment that characterized "Quizology" This event was a resounding success, leaving all participants and attendees with a memorable and intellectually fulfilling experience.

Brief Report:

The seminar commenced at around 12 PM on October 8, 2024 with Devanshi, Joint Secretary of the Economics Department, introducing the guest speaker – Mr. Prashant Sharma and welcoming him along with the teachers-in-charge. Minal Bansal, President of the Economics Department then felicitated the speaker. The seminar began with an interesting question "Skills or money?" which was answered by Tanisha and Riya from the audience, concluding that skills are more important than money, as they make one valuable. The law of diminishing intent was also discussed. The speaker explained the power of patience using the bamboo's growth as an example. In another question about an elephant in chains, Tanvi and Payal highlighted how people often don't realize their own capabilities, emphasizing the need for self-belief. Ayushi and Anvesha, were asked about qualities of a bureaucrat and CEO, respectively. Leadership, problem-solving, and communication skills were highlighted as key traits while answering these questions. The importance of keeping up with current events through newspapers, tips on civil service preparation alongside college, and the civil services examination process were discussed. The session ended with Manya Modi, Vice President of the Economics Department welcoming Minal for thanking the speaker by presenting him a letter of appreciation for his efforts, followed by a Vote of Thanks by the President, Minal Bansal.
