OBSERVATION

The Program Exit Survey 2023–26 reflects an overall positive response from the students of B.A. (Hons.) Sanskrit regarding the learning outcomes. Students expressed satisfaction with the development of their communication skills and their knowledge of Sanskrit language, Sanskrit literature, Sanskrit Shastras, and classical Sanskrit texts. The students also showed satisfaction with the curriculum, teaching-learning process, academic support, and overall learning environment. The overall feedback received from the students was positive and satisfactory.

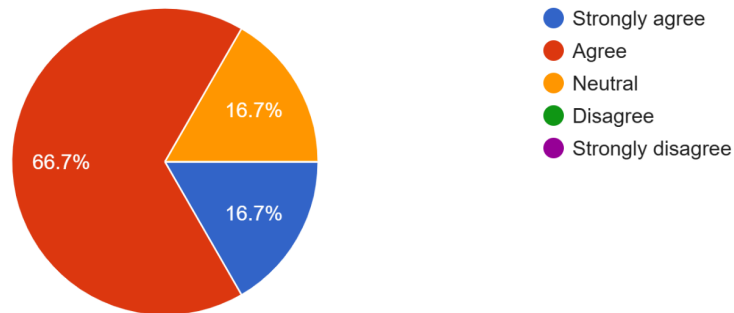

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Based on the feedback, the Department will continue its effective teaching-learning practices and further promote digital resources, interactive teaching methods, seminars, workshops, and skill-oriented activities. Career guidance and academic mentoring will also be strengthened. The feedback will be considered for continuous improvement of the programme.

Observation

The Program Exit Survey 2022–26 indicates an overall positive and satisfactory response from the students of B.A. (Hons.) Sanskrit with regard to the learning outcomes of the programme. The students expressed satisfaction with the enhancement of their communication skills and their understanding of the Sanskrit language, Sanskrit literature, Sanskrit Shastras, and classical Sanskrit texts. They also reported a positive level of satisfaction with the curriculum, teaching-learning practices, academic support, and the overall learning environment. Overall, the feedback received from the students reflects a positive and satisfactory learning experience.

Action Taken Report

In response to the feedback received, the Department will continue to strengthen and sustain its effective teaching-learning practices. Greater emphasis will be placed on the use of digital resources, interactive and learner-centred teaching methods, seminars, workshops, and skill-oriented activities. Career guidance and academic mentoring will also be further enhanced to support the overall academic and professional development of students. The feedback received through the survey will be taken into consideration as part of the Department's continuous efforts towards improving the quality and effectiveness of the programme.
