Brief Report

On 28th February 2025, Impreneurs – The Entrepreneurship Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College organised a session on "Financial Literacy" in collaboration with Udyam Expert. The session was conducted from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM in Room No. 66. Before the event began, convenors, Dr. Raju Keshri and Ms. Shalini Singh felicitated the speaker CS Himanshu Sharma.

The expert provided valuable insights into budgeting, investment options, risk management, and financial security. Key topics included segments of the capital market, and investment opportunities such as PPF, mutual funds, and stock markets. The speaker also discussed safe investment practices, diversification, and the role of SEBI and RBI in regulating financial markets. Additionally, students were introduced to the SEBI Saarthi app for investor awareness and educated about scam prevention and legal measures. The session was successfully carried out with enthusiastic participation, from the 55+ audience. The event enhanced financial awareness, and equipped students with the essential knowledge to make informed financial decisions.

BRIEF REPORT

Impreneurs, the Entrepreneurship Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College, organized the inter-college competition “Phoenix Pitch” on February 8, 2025. Centered on the themes of innovation and brand revival, the event featured eight teams that advanced from the online preliminary round. Each team selected a discontinued brand or product line and presented a comprehensive strategy for its revival, including a structured business model and investment plan.

The competition was judged by Mr. Ansh Sehdev, Founder and CEO of INGLU, and Dr. Sakshi Bansal, Assistant Professor in the Economics Department. The judges assessed the teams based on their strategic planning, presentation skills, and feasibility of their ideas. The top three teams were recognized and awarded for their outstanding performance. Concluding the event, Mr. Sehdev shared valuable insights, encouraging participants to enhance their entrepreneurial skills. The competition concluded successfully, fostering innovation and strategic thinking among the participants.

Brief Report

Impreneurs - The Entrepreneurship Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College organised a Speed Mentoring session on- 'Female Participation in Labour forces', in collaboration with Janki Devi Vocational Centre. The event was conducted under the aegis of Centre for Skill Enhancement on, 23 October 2024 at noon in Room no 5 of JDVC. After a brief introduction of Womennovator's purpose, the JDVC Director and our convenors felicitated the guest speakers. The session began with the mentors advocating the independence and self-sufficiency of women. Then, the attendees were divided into groups of ten and each group was assigned a mentor.

The students shared their queries with the mentors, who guided them and provided clarity. Dr. Sarthak shed light on the entrepreneurial mindset and talked about startups. Ms. Aarti joined the session virtually and addressed the challenges faced in the field. Many students opened up and shared their own stories, while the mentors responded with encouraging answers. Overall, the event ended on a successful note, as the students were thoroughly inspired and motivated.

Brief Report

Impreneurs - The Entrepreneurship Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College organised a seminar on CAT/GMAT/GRE - The Gateway to Management Career, in collaboration with Global Creed and Global Creed X. The event took place on 24 September 2024 at noon in Room no 66. After the felicitation of our guest speakers by the convenors, the session started with Mr Devansh, the founder of Global creed X, playing a video demonstration on life goals and career planning. Moving further, he shared his experience in strategy management, encouraging aspirants to choose a suitable path for them.

This was followed by a quiz session based on the general knowledge of the audience, which tested their logical and analytical skills, as well as their awareness of the various universities and colleges that give admissions through CAT/GMAT/GRE. The speaker concluded the seminar by showing a report on IIM placements and talking about the viability of different colleges. After the seminar ended, brochures and discount coupons were distributed among the attendees.

BRIEF REPORT

Impreneurs - The Entrepreneurship Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College organized a seminar on “Preparation of UPSC exams”, in collaboration with “Next IAS” on 19 September, 2024 at 11:30 AM in Room No. 67. The event started with our convenors felicitating our honorable speakers, Mr Mayank Singh, an academic coach in Next IAS, and IPS Shruti Jain. Mr Mayank came forward to share his insights on UPSC preparation. He laid down the core characteristics of the examination while insisting on the importance of finding your own path in the journey of Civil services. He asserted the cruciality of being consistent and persistent.

Ms Shruti Jain shared her inspirational story, while urging everyone to find out why they're doing this and where they want to go with this before choosing this venture. She persuaded the aspirants to discern their strengths and weaknesses, discover their interests and not to idealize the exceptions in the field. The students were very interactive. Many attendees asked questions regarding the UPSC journey and the speakers cleared everyone's queries, providing insightful knowledge. The event ended on a successful note with Team Impreneurs expressing their gratitude to the speakers and providing the audience with toolkits.

Brief Report

The Case Study Competition organized by Impreneurs- The Entrepreneurship Cell of Janki Devi Memorial College, took place on 14 September, 2024 at 10 am in Room no. 68. After the felicitation of our esteemed judges by the convenors of Impreneurs, the selected participants from various colleges came forward to give their presentations one by one. These participants had cleared Round 1 which took place on an online platform "Unstop". The Round 2 that was conducted in the JDMC premises, required all teams to prepare a solution to a hypothetical start-up problem "EcoUnity - The G&G Geometry"

The teams presented their case study with eloquent expression and commendable display within a time limit, showcasing their implementation plans, ideas and strategy- mapping about fields such as sustainability, gender-equity, financial feasibility. The judges raised questions and queries about their presentations while the participants aimed to answer confidently. The event ended on a successful note as the three winning teams were announced and awarded with certificates and prize money.
