

International Conference

As a member of Centre for Universal Values and Ethics, JDMC, Avani participated in organising an ICSSR sponsored, two-day International Conference on “Indigenous Knowledge System and their relevance in Contemporary Time”. As a part of the conference, Avani conducted two plenary sessions. The first plenary session was conducted on April 23, 2024 on “Environmentalism: Sustainability and Traditional Practices”. The speakers for the session were Prof. Toshimenla, Nagaland University (online), Ritu Rao, the Teri School of Advanced Studies (offline), Mr. Rijit Sengupta, CRB (online) and Dr. Akash Verma, Singapore University (online). They spoke on varied topics related to the need for revival of traditional knowledge for sustainable environmentalism. The conference revolved on focusing on community sentiments and building up on inter-generational equity and preservation of traditional knowledge to challenge modern Western capitalism centric development paradigms. This session was chaired by Mr. Deepak Rawat, JDMC.

On the second day on April 24, 2024, the plenary session was on the theme “Environmentalism: Sustainability and Conservation”. The session included screening of two documentaries, one on ghariyal conservation by Dr. Gaurav Vashistha and the other on Taungiyen community of Maharajganj, UP and their struggle to conserve their Sal forests by Mr. Dheeraj Sarthak. The third speaker, Dr. Vasudha Pande reflected on the Eastern Himalayan Environmentalism. The Session was chaired by Ms. Vandana Madan, JDMC.

The second plenary session was followed by the paper presentation session on “Environmentalism and Sustainability”. There were six paper presenters who spoke on diverse themes relating to conservation and preservation of Indigenous practices for environmental sustainability.

Open House

To celebrate the Earth Day, Avani, the Environment Club of JDMC on April 22, 2024 conducted an Open House in collaboration with the Green Dream Foundation on theme 'Waste Segregation: A Way of Life'. The aim of the Open House was to create awareness about waste segregation and its importance in leading an eco-friendly lifestyle.

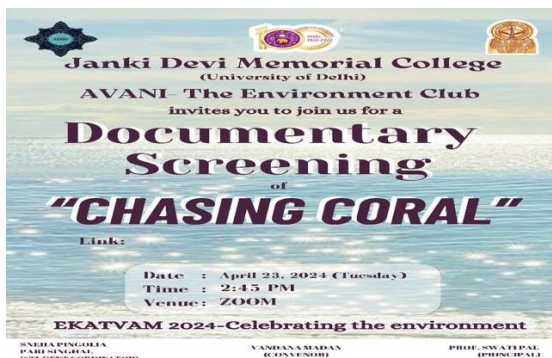

The convenor of the society, Ms. Vandana Madan formally commenced the event with the felicitation of the esteemed guest speaker, Ms. Simran Gupta, Associate Manager, Green Dream Foundation and alumna JDMC. This was followed by Ms. Gupta sharing insights on the environmental impact of improper waste disposal and provided practical tips for adopting sustainable waste management practices. There were 80 participants who attended the Open House. They actively engaged in conversations about the role of individuals in waste management, exchanging ideas and strategies for adopting waste segregation habits. The Open House encouraged the participants to build connections and collaborate for collective environmental action, emphasising the importance of a community-driven approach to sustainability.

Outreach Activity with Green Dream Foundation

As a part of an outreach activity a team of students from Avani participated in a dry waste Clean-up Drive organised by the NGO, Green Dream Foundation near Lal Quila (Red Fort) Metro Station Gate Number 4 on March 23, 2024. This activity was facilitated by Ms. Simran

Gupta, Associate Manager, Green Dream Foundation and an alumna of Janki Devi Memorial College. The primary aim of the drive was to contribute to the preservation of Lal Quila and its surroundings by collecting dry waste and fostering environmental awareness among the participants. As a recognition of their dedication and commitment to environmental conservation, the student participants were presented with certificates by the Green Dream Foundation upon the successful conclusion of the cleanliness drive. This activity proved invaluable for the students, instilling in them a profound sense of responsibility towards the environment and nurturing a spirit of community service. Their active involvement not only contributed to the enhancement of a significant landmark but also underscored the importance of maintaining cleanliness in public spaces.

Avani participates in the Diwali Mela

The Jyotsana (the Diwali mela) event was a grand celebration of Diwali, the festival of lights. The event was organised by the combined efforts of staff, student union and various societies, including Avani, the environment club. Avani participated in the mela with a stall showcasing handmade bags, hand-painted diyas, and face painting services. The stall was a great success, generating enough revenue to cover the expenses. The event was a fun and vibrant affair, with a variety of dance performances, food stalls, and other attractions.

Avani's stall attracted a steady stream of visitors. The handmade bags, which were made by students as part of the club's monthly activity, were particularly popular. The intricate designs and vibrant colours of the bags drew in students and teacher attention towards the stall. The hand-painted diyas with their delicate patterns and vibrant colours also attracted the crowd. The face painting service was found extremely exciting with the students lining up to have beautiful designs painted on themselves.

Face Painting Competition

Avani, the Environment Club, JDMC, University of Delhi organised an intra-college face painting competition on October 6, 2023 to celebrate the Wild Life Week. The event aimed to raise awareness about wildlife conservation through the creative medium of face art. Participants displayed exceptional artistic talent, transforming faces into captivating wildlife representations. The theme of Wildlife Week inspired students to research and incorporate intricate details into their designs. The competition not only showcased the artistic prowess of the students but also emphasized the significance of protecting the natural world. All the participants were awarded with cash prizes for displaying their artistic skills and talents for concern for protecting and conserving the wildlife. The face painting competition during Wildlife Week was a resounding success, fostering a sense of environmental responsibility among the college community and serving as a reminder of our shared duty to safeguard our planet's magnificent creatures.

The poster is for a 'Face Painting Competition' held on October 6, 2023, at the backside of the Cafeteria. It is organized by Avani, The Environment Club, in celebration of Wildlife Week. The theme is 'Wildlife'. The poster is bilingual, with English and Hindi text. It includes details about the date, time, and venue. There are also logos for G20 India 2023 and the University of Delhi. The poster features a white silhouette of a dog on the right side. At the bottom, there are names and roles of the organizing committee members.

Avani Celebrates the World Rain Forest Day: A Report

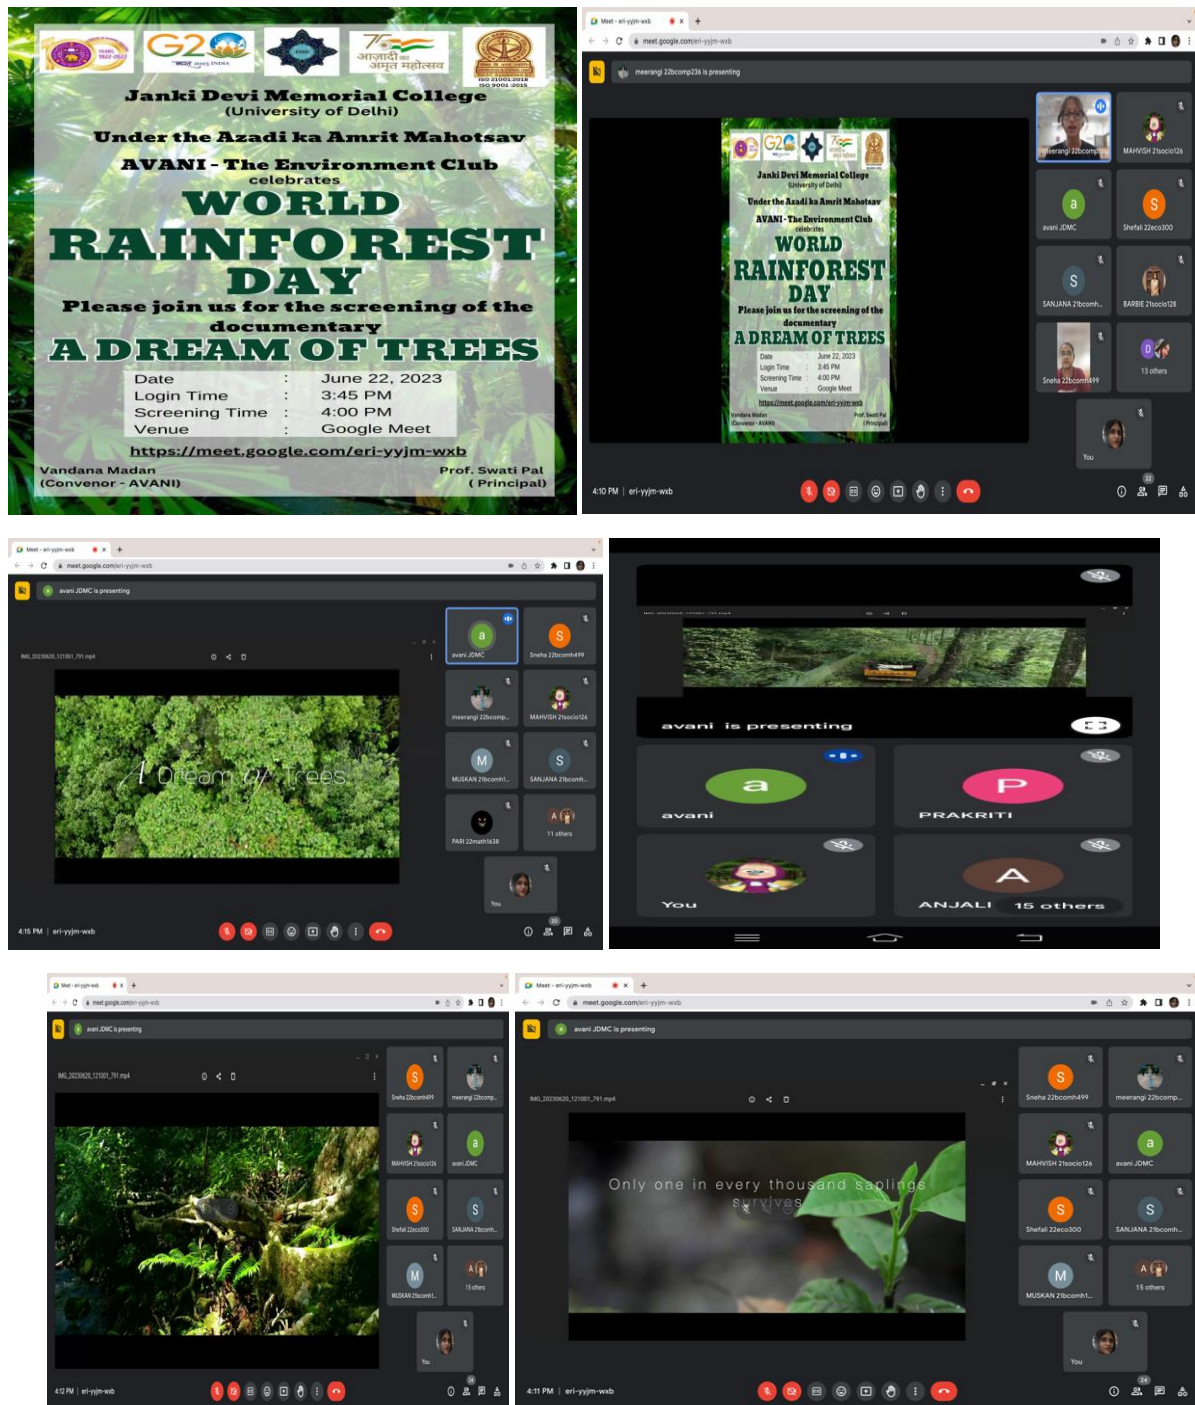

AVANI, the Environment Club of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi organised an online screening of the documentary, “A Dream of Trees” on the occasion of the World Rainforest Day under the aegis of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav on June 22, 2023. The World Rainforest Day was founded in 2017 by the organisation, Rainforest Partnership and calls for a global movement to protect and restore standing rainforests for healthy climate and promoting biodiversity, culture, and livelihoods.

The screening session started with Ms. Meerangi, student member from Avani welcoming the participants and motivating them to engage in environment friendly activities. This was followed by Ms. Sneha, student member from Avani apprising the participants on rules to be followed during the screening of the documentary.

The documentary screening began at 4:00 pm with students’ members of Avani attending it. The documentary unfolded the tale of ecological restoration of degraded tropical rainforests in the Anamalai hills of the Western Ghats, India. It was an inspiring story of restoration and reviving the connections between plants and animals and between people and rainforests in a shared landscape. The participants watched the documentary with keen interest and found it extremely enriching.
