Report: Card-Making Initiative for The Indian Armed Force by Team Kalakriti, JDMC

Date: 14th May 2025

Time: 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM

Venue: JDMC, Auditorium

Organised by: Kalakriti Art Club, Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi

Initiative by: College/University was led by Prof. Swati Pal as Principal.

As a way to say thank you and show their support, Team Kalakriti of Janki Devi Memorial College organised a card-making drive on 14th May 2025 for the Indian Armed Forces. It became very significant in the recent days as India and Pakistan clashed along the border in Kashmir. Given the recent tensions along the border, including a temporary ceasefire on 10th May, this card-making drive aimed to show support and boost morale for our soldiers.

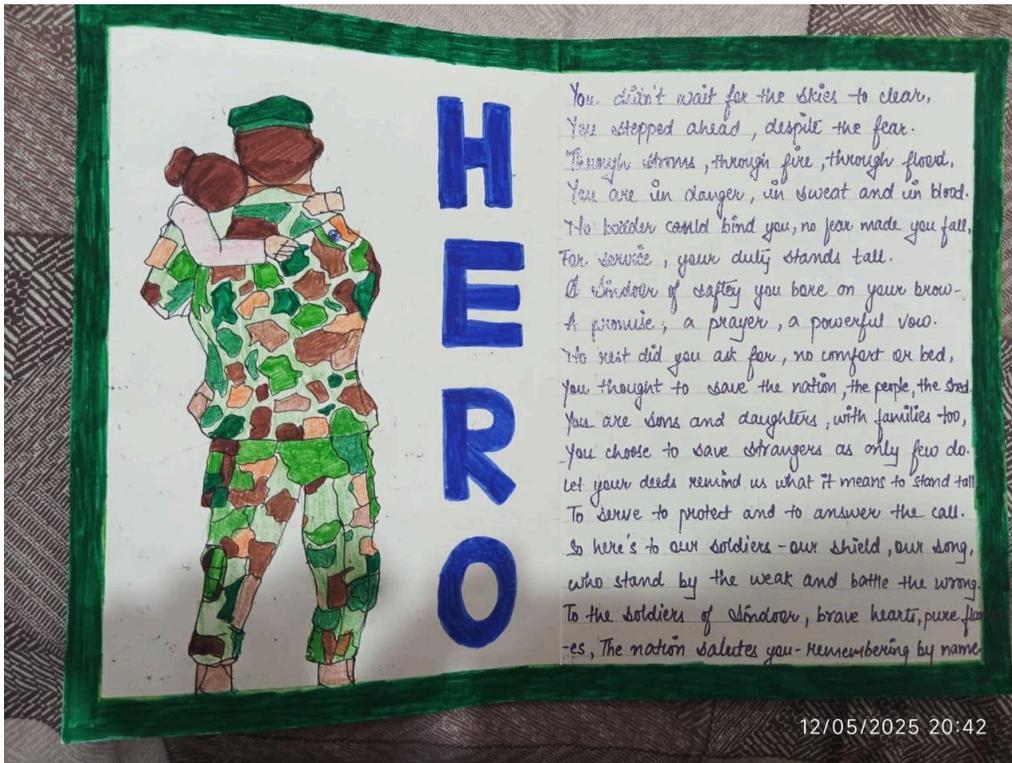

Between 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM, the students gathered to create many handmade cards and letters saying thank you, filled with inspiring poems and artwork. Cards were decorated with different designs and then dispatched to the military headquarters on 16th May for handing out to the soldiers at the borders.

The initiative was conducted under the guidance of Principal Prof. Swati Pal, with support from Dr. Himanshu Bala Jangid (Teacher Convener), Dr. Ankita Kumar (Co-Convener) and Prof. Payal Nagpal (IQAC Coordinator). The core team of Kalakriti Anousha Jain (President), Ishika Goel (Vice President) and Nisha (General Secretary) guided the activity enthusiastically and with dedication.

By doing this, the students demonstrated their strong respect for the military and built a unifying, thankful and patriotic environment at the college.

HERO

You didn't wait for the skies to clear,
You stepped ahead, despite the fear.
Through storms, through fire, through flood,
You are in danger, in sweat and in blood.
No border could bind you, no fear made you fall,
For service, your duty stands tall.
A window of softness you bore on your brow -
A promise, a prayer, a powerful vow.
No rest did you ask for, no comfort or bed,
You thought to save the nation, the people, the shed.
You are sons and daughters, with families too,
You choose to save strangers as only few do.
Let your deeds remind us what it means to stand tall
To serve to protect and to answer the call.
So here's to our soldiers - our shield, our song,
who stand by the weak and battle the wrong.
To the soldiers of valor, brave hearts, pure flow-
-es, The nation salutes you - remembering by name

12/05/2025 20:42

Dear Protector of My Nation,
You are the silent sunrise at our borders,
The reason why we wake up to freedom
each day.
While the world moves on in ease and
laughter,
You stand still— watchful,
unwavering, brave.
Your uniform may be worn and dusty,
But to us, it gleams with honor untold.
For every moment we live without fear,
There's a moment of yours left in the cold.
We know you miss your home, your land,
Yet you make every inch of this soil
your stand.
You are the unspoken prayer of every
mother,

From A Proud Indian

From A Proud Indian

To the Bravehearts at the Front,

In the midnight's solitude we sleep peacefully— you do not.
At the comfort of our homes, we rejoice the life— because you secure it.

You are the calm in the chaos we face, and the thunder to our dreams.
Your courage reverberates with every heartbeat of Bharat.

Your steely soul and fiery heart is a testament to the untold bravery you display while conceding each tear and facing relentless bullets.

You're not merely men clad

Behind
every Flag Flying High
is a Soldier who Never Gave Up

Thank you For being the Strength of our Nation

Report : Mandala Art Workshop by Chetna Singla

Date: 26th February 2026

Time: 12PM- 2 PM

Venue: Room no. 1

Organised by: Kalakriti Art Club, Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi

Initiative by: College/University was led by Prof. Swati Pal as Principal

The Mandala Art Workshop was successfully organized by the Kalakriti Art Club. Mandala art is a creative form of drawing based on circular patterns that represent balance, harmony, and unity. The word mandala comes from Sanskrit and means “circle” or “center.” Traditionally used in spiritual practices like Buddhism and Hinduism, mandalas help improve focus, relaxation, and creativity. The workshop aimed to encourage creativity, mindfulness, and artistic expression among students.

The session was led by artist Chetna Singla, who introduced participants to the fundamentals of mandala art, its history, symbolism, and therapeutic benefits. During the session, students were guided step-by-step through the process of creating mandalas, beginning with basic patterns and gradually moving towards more intricate designs. The instructor demonstrated techniques such as symmetry, pattern repetition, detailing, and color selection. Participants actively engaged in the hands-on activity and explored their own styles while learning new artistic skills.

The event was successfully organized under the supervision of Ms. Himanshu B. Jagatdeb (Convenor), Dr. Ankita Kumar (Co-Convenor), Dr. Kush Kumar Gayasen (IQAC Coordinator), Dr. Shiwani Burnwal (Deputy IQAC Coordinator), Prof. Sandhya Garg (Vice Principal), and Prof. Swati Pal (Principal). The sincere efforts of Anousha Jain (President), Ishika Goel (Vice President), Nisha (General Secretary), and Prerna (Treasurer) ensured the smooth and successful execution of the event.

The workshop created a calm and interactive environment where students could relax and express themselves creatively. It also highlighted the role of mandala art as a tool for stress relief, focus, and self-reflection. Students appreciated the practical guidance and the opportunity to learn a unique art form.
