2018-19

LUMIÈRE: The Photography and Film Society

Convenors: Dr. Saumya Gupta, Dr Antara Dutta and Ms. Tannu Sharma

Lumière members successfully participated in workshops by Nikon, mentored by Saumya Khandelwal, a renowned photojournalist.

Lumière conducted a Workshop by Mr. Sharbendu De, in 2018 on basic composition techniques with more emphasis on going out in the field and shooting.

The society successfully holds seminars and workshops related to photography and film making by famous artists.

The team also made official teasers of the cultural fest symphony 2019.

Work of our team members has been exhibited in many colleges and galleries.

The society regularly conducts photo walks and screenings. Photo walks have been conducted at places like Yamuna Ghat, Raj Path, Safdarjung tomb etc.

Lumière held 4 competitions in during symphony 2019

• The dark room: online Photography competition

• Real on reel: an online film making competition

• On the spot: on campus Photography competition,

• Snap Stories: Photography exhibition of original work presented by Lumière members.

During symphony 2019, the society received over 120 registrations for on the spot photography competition.

Lumière members have participated in many inter college competitions and have won in many colleges like PGDAV, Delhi Technological University, LSR and many more.

Some of the Lumière members Worked as Crewmembers in photography and cinematography team of India's biggest mental health festival organized by mental health foundation of India on 10th of October 2018 at JLN auditorium, all India Institute of medical sciences, New Delhi.

Anushka Mishra, interned with FT broadcast and also wrote content for global blogs (anonymous) as a freelance content writer and also covered various events held in JDMC.

Harshi Gupta covered various events as a photographer held at JDMC (E-Summit'2018, Elysian'2018, Fintastic'2018.)

Various prizes and awards received during 2018-19 are listed below :

• Kaveri Sharma secured First position in on the spot photography competition at LSR, during February 2019.

• Kaveri Sharma secured Second position in online photography competition at DTU and PGDAV respectively during January 2019.

• Hanisha Arora secured First position in Shadows-the photography competition during Politique 2019, organized by the Political Science Department, JDMC.

• A poem by Sakshi Khanna, "a sense of belonging" got selected with 99 other poems out of 650 other poems for publishing in the book "love: as we know it" By Delhi poetry slam and poem pajama.

• Photographs by Monya Sharma and Hanisha Arora were shortlisted for final rounds in the various online photography competitions held by worldphotographersclub.com

• Hanisha Arora's photograph was recognized in the special mentions category in an online photography competition organized by DTU times during Esperanza 2018.

• Monya Sharma secured First position in online Photography competition at Ethos '18 organized by the sociology department, JDMC.

• Hanisha Arora secured Second position in an online photography competition (radiance '18) organized by Dr. Bhim Rao Ambedkar college during April 2018.

• Anushka Mishra, Hanisha Arora and Kaveri Sharma secured Third position in my take videography (Comtalk 2018) organized by commerce department JDMC during February 2018.

• Anushka Mishra secured the Second position in "Frames - Photograph festival's the main exhibition" organised by St Stephen's college, 2018.

• Sakshi Khanna secured Third position in online Photography competition at Dyal Singh College, during February 2018.

• Hanisha Arora secured Second position in on the spot photography competition at Bhaskaracharya College of applied sciences during Srijan-2018.

• Kaveri Sharma secured First position in on the spot photography competition at Bhaskaracharya College of applied sciences during Srijan-2018.

SAKSHI