Event Report: Baithak: A Musical Session

Organised by the Music Department, Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi

The Music Department of Janki Devi Memorial College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with Sarang: The Indian Music Club and under the aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), successfully organized a session of Baithak on 25th October 2024. This initiative reflects the college's commitment to nurturing and promoting the rich heritage of Indian classical music.

The session commenced at 12:00 PM in the college's Music Room, a fitting venue for such an intimate and immersive musical gathering. The concept of a Baithak stems from traditional Indian settings, where musicians perform in close proximity to the audience, enabling a profound exchange of energy, learning, and appreciation.

This edition of Baithak offered an enlightening experience for students and music enthusiasts, featuring both demonstrations and discussions aimed at deepening their understanding of classical ragas and musical techniques. The ambiance of the session emphasized informal yet focused learning, encouraging attendees to engage actively with the performances.
